Dr Archana Hingorani, Chief Executive Officer, IL&FS Investment Managers, said,

Over the last couple of years the global economy has been going through a challenging phase with lower growth rates. However, this is expected to pick up next year on the back of increasing demand from developed markets and improvement in economic conditions in a number of distressed economies. Indian economy is currently in an advantageous position. Softening of inflation, higher degree of control on the twin deficits and interest rate cuts are expected to spur investments. Capitalising on this positive environment, the Company is expecting to raise further funds in the infrastructure and real estate verticals this year and announce a final close of its growth private equity fund. The Company is also diversifying its lines of business, which will fructify in the second half of this fiscal
